Letter from a Brother of General Ewell

WHY HE URGES VIRGINIA TO VOTE FOR THE RE-ELECTION OF GRANT

Colonel Benjamin S Ewell President of the College of William and Mary Virginia, has written a letter strongly favoring the re-election of President Grant He is a brother of the late General Ewell, and was General Joe E Johnson's Adjutant-General during the rebellion The following is his letter

WILLIAMSBURG Va May 18th, 1872

To [illegible] Dear Sir—In compliance with your request I here repeat the substance of our conversation on the last and approaching Presidential elections though I do not suppose my opinions on such subjects are worthy of attention or repetition You expressed some astonishment when I informed you that in 1868 I was favorable to General Grant's election to the Presidency of the United States and was as decidedly in favor of his re-election I will again give my reason for this preference

It was my conviction in 1868 that the election of a President opposed by decided majorities of both houses of Congress would serve no purpose but to increase the ill feeling, and disquietude that followed a like condition of affairs during Johnson's administration and perhaps to pave the way for more serious disorders and uneasiness It was also my conviction that an assured and peaceful Union was a necessity to the people of Virginia, and as much so to those of the other Southern States Whatever tended directly or indirectly to produce undue excitement, and thence possibly revolution I deprecated as the greatest evil that could befall this country agreeing with Bulwer that a cause which the noblest allow to be good, and which when successful, all time approves, may seem to justify the attempt at a revolution yet recalling now all the evil passions it excites all the ties it dissolves, all the blood it commands to flow, all the healthful industry it arrests all the madmen it arms, all the victims that it dupes, I question whether one man really honest, pure and humane, who has once gone through such an ordeal, would ever hazard it again unless he was assured that victory was certain aye and the object for which he fights was not to be wrested from his hands amid the uproar of the elements that the battle had aroused " Then too I had implicit confidence in General Grant's earnest wish to 'have peace in his good will and his patriotism This confidence originated in the terms he gave at Appomattox court house to his great opponent and battered remnant of that brave army that had staked its all upon a cause for which it was no more to combat or to bleed,' and that had so long resisted his legions These terms, that ' each officer and man will be allowed to return to his home not to be disturbed by the United States authority so long as they observe their paroles and the laws in force where they reside, ' are without a precedent in the history of all such struggles for their liberality, and were as wise as liberal, for while they effectually terminated the contest they protected those who surrendered from the legal consequences of waging war against the Government and probably saved from execution or imprisonment Lee and scores of his gallant associates

The effect of these terms, as stated in General Grant's report of the closing operations of the war was that General Lee's great influence throughout the South caused his example to be followed, and the result is that to-day the armies late under his leadership are at their homes desiring peace and quiet, and their arms in the hands of our ordnance officers

In the closing sentence of this report he pays to the Southern troops so late in arms against his own the following tribute

Let them (the Eastern and Western United States army) hope for perpetual peace and harmony with that enemy whose manhood however mistaken the cause, drew forth such herculean deeds of valor A tribute most grateful to the devoted men composing the Southern armies and most honorable to its author

It seems to me that since the return of peace General Grant's aim has been to relieve the Southern people to the extent of his ability attempting nothing which the controlling power of the North would not allow and this was expedient as well as necessary That he has not accomplished all that was hoped for or expected perhaps is true but it was simply impossible His friendly and favorable report on the condition of the South made as General commanding the armies of the United States that excited the censure of some members of his party is an illustration

The fact that Virginians now rule Virginia is one result of General Grant's sympathy and good feeling for the State and people and his active interference in their behalf

Virginia is the only State whose relations to the General Government have been renewed since he became the chief executive officer of the nation Without his aid the people would not have been allowed to vote separately on the offensive and rejected articles of the present Constitution The whole would have been adopted and as a necessary consequence the State would to-day be no better off than the worst governed Southern State

Looking at all this I think I am right in asserting that General Grant has done more to heal the wounds of war than any other one of the great political party to which he belongs Believing this I acknowledge it and am ready and willing to show my appreciation and gratitude in any becoming manner

There is a loud cry of corruption against the present administration but I have heard a like cry so long it was louder in the days of Jackson so much louder that my ears still ring with its echoes and so often—it is always the battle cry of the outs —that I do not put full trust in it or pay much regard to it

Of the reasons you of the north have for supporting General Grant perhaps I ought not to speak yet I will say that if military services ever merit civil rewards then is General Grant entitled to all you can give him

Excepting the important victory at Gettysburg he was the leader in almost every triumph of the Union arms Fort Donelson, Vicksburg with vast stores and upwards of 30 000 prisoners Chattanooga and Missionary Ridge and the finale at Appomattox court house attest this Though the end was reached by fearful losses, by the wearing out by attrition of the Southern armies yet such losses were required to disorganize and overcome such armies It was the only mode of ending the war for had the morale and organization of the Confederate armies not been thus destroyed war would now exist That our country has been spared from so continued a calamity all should rejoice and trust-ing, I have not worn out your patience I remain yours sincerely BENJ S EWELL

Agricultural Resources of Oregon.

In the last census report we find some statistical information in regard to the agricultural resources of our State which, although perhaps not exact, is still approximately correct. To expect a report which contained no errors in a work so [illegible] and embracing such a variety of subjects would be hardly reasonable, yet these decennial reports enable the public to [illegible] a generally correct opinion of the progress and amount of productions and comparative growth of the country at large

Advance sheets of the last report from the Agricultural Department have been forwarded us and we gather therefrom the following facts with reference to this branch of the report from Oregon

The whole number of acres of improved lands in the State 1,116,290 woodland 261,001; other unimproved lands, [illegible] The cash value of the farms at the date of the report was $22,352,989, the total value of farming implements and machinery, $[illegible],293,717. The total value of all farm productions, including betterments and additions to stock $7,122,790 The orchard products of the State for 1870, amounted to $310,041 market garden products, $105,271, forest products, $259,220. The value of home manufactures is only $87,360, that of animals slaughtered, or sold for slaughter, $1,364,737. There were also produced, in the year 1870, tobacco, 3,847 lbs; wool, 1,080,638 lbs; peas and beans 12,[illegible] bushels; Potatoes (Irish), 481,610 and sweet 1,970 bushels, wine, 1,754 gals, butter, 1,418,373 lbs, cheese, 79,333 lbs, milk sold 107,367 gallons, tons of hay grown, 75 357 The value of all live stock is set down at $6 828,675; number of horses, mules and asses, 2,581; milch cows, 33,325; work oxen 2,441, other horned cattle, 69,431, sheep, 318,123, swine, 119,455. The number of bushels of wheat produced was, spring wheat, 1,794 394 [illegible]; winter wheat, 546,252 rye, 3 890 Indian corn, 72,138, oats, 2,029,909, barley 210,736; buckwheat, 1,645 clover, 10, and grass seed 1,210 bushels. Of hops 9,745 lbs were raised, of flax, 40,474 lbs., and of flax seed 10,783 bushels The State produced 66,858 pounds of honey, 1,207 pounds of beeswax, 30 gallons of molasses and 11 pounds of maple sugar.

The above are all the productions reported, and the quantities given are in some cases estimated, and then found only approximately correct.

By counties Lane, with 190,920 acres of improved land, is greatest in the area of such lands in the value of her improved farms is $2,499,297, while Linn's 185,345 acres is estimated at $3,630,063. And 161,481 acres of improved lands in Yamhill county are worth $2,826,145 The number of acres of wood lands in Baker county are not reported nor are other unimproved lands in Baker, Jackson, Josephine and Polk. The least extent of timbered lands reported in any one county is in Grant, which has 450 acres of improved lands. Tillamook has the least extent, 1 020 acres, her area also being the least The counties of Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Curry, Josephine and Tillamook, each have less than 5,000 acres of improved land. Josephine has 5 172 acres. Baker, Grant, Multnomah and Wasco have upwards of 10,000 and less than 20,000 each. Benton, Clackamas, Jackson Umatilla and Union, each more than 20,000 and less than 50,000; Marion 61,990, and Douglas, [illegible], Polk and Yamhill each upwards of 100,000 acres. Of timbered lands, Clackamas has the greatest area, 117,139 acres; Douglas next, 114,518. Again, of improved lands, 1,090 acres in Tillamook are valued at $67,050, while 5,182 acres in Josephine county are valued at only $63,800, 24,714 acres of farm lands in Washington county are estimated to be worth $1,219,650, while 27,301 acres in Jackson are valued at only $[illegible]9,570. Coos county has 3,421 acres of farm lands, valued at $203,350, while the adjoining county of curry has 3,183 acres, valued at only $80,290 The farms of Multnomah, embracing 19 000 acres, produced more than one half as much in value as those of Polk [illegible] of 125,000 acres. Josephine having a greater area of improved lands than each of the counties of Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Curry or Tillamook, produced less in [illegible] than [illegible] of those counties, though we think the report is unreliable as to Josephine [illegible] matter in that county having [illegible].

The [illegible] are doubtless damaging to [illegible] counties, owing to the [illegible] with which the Deputy Marshals have [illegible] in making their reports to the Census Department, but these are matters which cannot well be avoided For instance, there is a report of only 100 bushels of wheat as raised in Josephine county, which is evidently incorrect

Linn county produced 479,294 bushels of wheat, being nearly one fifth of the entire wheat crop of the State. The principal wheat growing counties are Benton, Lane, Linn, Marion, Polk and Yamhill, each producing upwards of 200,000 bushels. Multnomah county [illegible] the lead in only two items, raising [illegible] and selling milk in making cheese, she is next to Lane, which is highest The largest single item is the quantity of wheat, and the smallest reported is maple sugar.

The total number of farms in the State is 7,587, 88 of these embrace 1,000 acres or more each, 338 embrace 500 acres or more and less than 1 000 acres; 2,394 under 500 acres and more than 100 each, 1,409 contains each less than 100 acres and more than 50 1,545 contain more than 20 and less than 50 acres each The remaining number of farms 1 213 contain less than 20 acres each The report shows the increase over 1860 in acres of improved lands, 115,875 Increase in value of farms, $7,152,396 There was a decrease in the value of orchard products of $168 438 and of 4,745 in the number of milch cows in the State. Four thousand more bushels of Indian corn were raised in 1860 than in 1870 and a slight decrease in a few other articles of little importance, while in the great staples of wheat, oats, wool and live stock there was an increase in each as follows wheat 1 511 266 bushels oats, 1 143 236 bushels wool 861,626 pounds value of live stock $882-420

The statistics generally when compared with those of other States, present a favorable view of the growth and prosperity of Oregon, and give a godd idea of her productions and capacities. It is to be regretted that the reprot of the State is not more complete Our importance as an agricultural country is not so manifest as it should be made, and as the facts would justify. The valuation on different items in different counties lack uniformity, being regulated by the different ideas of different deputy Marshals and the value of the farming lands, live stock, etc, being taken in some cases from the county assessment rolls In most all such cases the valuation fixed is far below the actual value In other cases the value has been fixed by the census deputy Marshals at the full money value As a matter of course in every census report these errors and discrepancies have crept in and the utmost care is not sufficient to make an exact report [illegible] correct However [illegible] report for 1870 [illegible] the most nearly [illegible] as more pains have been taken and a greater expenditure made to [illegible] than [illegible] heretofore

The Democratic Quarrel

It is evident some of the Democratic leaders are becoming seriously alarmed The signs of the times are to them anything but comforting They feel assured that trouble is impending and are hastily preparing to meet it The extraordinary scene in the House of Representatives recently is conclusive proof of the serious apprehension existing in certain quarters Hon Daniel Voorhees is one of the shrewdest coolest and ablest members of Congress, and when he rises in his place and, upon the flimsy pretext of personal explanation goes into an exhaustive political speech, it may be set down that he sees breakers ahead And when that speech is not only followed by earnest remarks from colleagues on the floor but re-echoed by his co workers throughout the land, it is tolerably certain that those breakers are seen and feared by many other leaders

These gentlemen have for a long time been praying for a division in the Republican ranks, and latterly have been aiding in the accomplishment of such a scheme They expected the Liberal bolt to make a breach in the Republican party wide enough to admit a Democrat to the White House The nomination of Mr Greeley at Cincinnati filled them with joy The downfall of their strong enemy was now sure With proper management, a glorious Democratic victory was beyond peradventure A good strong ticket at Baltimore would sweep the country They wept for joy and smacked their lips at the prospect of again gaining access to the national pantry Visions of ecstatic bliss crowded their dreams They rejoiced hilariously, shouting, "Stand aside, boys, and let them fight it out, this is none of our funeral,' and then they would rub their little hands in glee

But now, to their consternation, they observe the curse coming home to roost They behold the offspring of their own evil minds returning to haunt and destroy them They discover that, while the nomination of Mr Greeley did not materially widen the breach in the Republican ranks it threatens to rend their own party in twain They discover that while all is quiet and orderly within the enemy's camp, and the work of reorganization, preparatory to a grand united effort, is going on steadily and harmoniously their own habitation roars with agitation from top to bottom that insubordination is rank and spreading, threatening disaster and ruin, and that the ball set in motion by the Tennessee Democracy threatens to roll into the Baltimore Convention with such force that it will smash the whole concern

It is no wonder Mr. Voorhees forced an opportunity to sound the tocsin It is certainly high time something was done There is no brighter reading to be found just now than the editorial pages of one-half the Democratic journals of the country An honest man' —"An old fool' —"Well worthy of Democratic support '— No honest Democrat can support him. 'Open, frank, fair '—Deceitful, cunning, tricky ' "Friend of the working people '— The apologist of the aristocrat " "Of generous, kindly nature' —"A scheming knave And so it goes As this is a free country however wherein every man has a right to express his own opinions of course we do not wish to complain But we insist that this little discussion be carried on without so much noise There must be less disorder, or we fear the proceedings will be interrupted by unpleasant intruders—men of authority We are anxious that this question of White or Gray hats shall be settled but the peace must be preserved

Pungent Criticism

Not recently have we seen a more pungent piece of writing than the following from the New York Nation That paper was the ablest organ of the Cincinnati 'Reformers,' but it was completely disappointed and disgusted with the results of the Convention It at once saw the ridiculous absurdity of the position in which Mr Greeley's nomination left every man who went to Cincinnati in good faith hoping to introduce a more elevated style in the management of parties and public affairs It thus closes an article on the subject

> But the strongest objection to him (Greeley) is that he is, as a Presidential candidate, the final attempt of that large class of quacks charlatans ignoramuses and sentimentalists who are engaged in every civilized country to day in trying to substitute 'the heart' for the head—or, in other words, to make singing, weeping and wailing do in politics the work of memory and judgment—to get possession of the Government of the United States They have succeeded in ruining one great and glorious nation, their fondest desire and proudest hope is now to ruin this They attain their ends by steady war on nearly all the methods practices principles and ideas which have raised man from the condition of a naked savage to that of civilized citizen of a free state They have no faith in any training they despise all education beyond which fits a man to read their own speeches and articles they treat the experience of the human race as a mere collection of fables, they delight in the abasement and overthrow and destruction of everything that most stimulates human endeavor in the way of honor or reward Their ideal of human society is one in which there reigns the equality of the herd on the prairie in which a life of instinct is passed under the partial guardianship of a few noisy old bulls whose sole duty to the State is to bellow We should be sorry to see them installed in Washington playing tricks with the great fabric that has thus far defied them which "defended by reverence defended by law a fortress at once and a temple," and resting on the solid rock of popular common sense, it is not in their power to bring to naught but which they might sadly deface and might even for a brief period bring into contempt

Eat Dirt or Bite the Dust

A New England paper says that the leading Democratic papers and politicians had made up their minds to swallow the Cincinnati nominations whatever they might be but they had no idea of being invited to swallow Horace Greeley And yet what better can the Democracy do Alone they are utterly powerless to defeat the re election of General Grant. To nominate a Democratic candidate against Greeley then, would, in its practical and immediate consequences be equivalent to nominating Grant himself It is a difficult strait the Democracy find themselves in To take Greeley is to take a pill such as Democracy never took before—one which may cure and may kill While to reject Greeley is certain death It is an awful dilemma for a party to be in, where its leaders are obliged to choose between possible life with humiliation, and certain death How they will finally choose, it is not easy to predict and the country will wait with impatience to see

The Next Legislature

The political complexion of the next Legislature in Oregon will be about as follows

Senate—Republicans Senators holding over S Brown and J. H Moores of Marion 2 Powell of Multnomah 3 Republican Senators-elect W W Bristow of Lane [illegible] Dolph of Multnomah [illegible] of [illegible] Watson of Douglas [illegible] Crystal [illegible] Harris [illegible] Candlus of Washington and Cowls of Yamhill [illegible] Total 11

Democratic Senators holding over Brown of Baker Fay of Jackson Patterson of Linn Helt and Crawford of Linn [illegible] of Grant and Lewellen of Umatilla 7

Democratic Senators elect [illegible], of Josephine Grant of Wasco, and Myers of Clackamas 3 Total 10

R S Strahan, of Benton was wrongfully invested with the seat belonging to Witham a Republican, and when Mr Witham gets his seat as he will certainly do the Republicans will have a majority of two in the Senate

The House stands as follows Republicans— Benton, 2 Clackamas 4 Clatsop 1 Clatsop and Tillamook, 1, Coos and Curry, 1, Douglas 3 Grant 2 Jackson, 2, Lane 3 Marion, 5, Multnomah 4 Polk 1 Washington 2 Yamhill 2 Total 32

Democrats—Baker, 1 Columbia 1 Josephine, 1, Jackson, 1, Linn 5, Polk, 2, Umatilla, 2, Union, 2 Wasco, 2, Total 17

Republican majority in the House, 15 Majority on joint ballot, 17

This calculation is made with a due allowance for all that the Democrats claim for themselves and shows a very encouraging state of affairs for Republicans, while it ought to bring a blush of shame to the Democratic party whose frauds perpetrated in the last Assembly, have so disgusted the people with their rule

A Democrat's View of the Situation

Breathes there a (Democrat) with soul so dead who ever to himself hath said, I'll vote for Horace Greeley should he become the nominee of my party for President of the United States? Vote for the man who has been the unrelenting foe of Democratic principles for the last thirty years'—a man who has done more to bring about the ruin and destruction of our Democratic stronghold the South than any other living or dead' Are these the straits a party is forced to who once ruled paramount in the land, that it must sink its name and principles and creep into power beneath the white hat and coat of an imbecile enemy? Are Democrats so dead to their past glory, or unmindful of the vast interests they represent that they must merge their name and existence with the apostates of a party who throw them out and clamor about a reform, whose first act at the Cincinnati Convention was a barefaced and gigantic fraud? What are Democrats to expect from the rulers of a party who owe them nothing as such? Are Schurz Tipton Sumner, Trumbull and the other half shell Republicans who hoist Greeley on their shoulders, any more favorable to the Democrats of to day than they were in the dark days of the rebellion? We think not and if "What I know about farming" ever attempts agriculture in the environs of the White House—which we think highly improbable—the Democrats will be as much forgotten as they are now, and their claims for consideration at such hands be as fully ignored as they now are at the hands of Grant

Dr Livingstone

Thirty-two years ago Dr Livingstone began his career in Africa by going out under the auspices of the London Missionary Society at the age of 25 as a missionary to South Africa

After sixteen years of labor and travel, he returned to England and published in 1857 'Missionary Travels and Researches in South Africa In 1857 he received from the British Government the appointment of Consul to Quilimane and returned to Africa more as an explorer than a missionary and especially to explore the river Zambesi, to promote among the natives a disposition to adopt useful arts and employ themselves in the culture of useful products, and generally, to develop a spirit of commercial activity and open up the hidden regions of these far off lands, to the enterprise of modern civilization After six years of very successful labor in these and cognate directions he returned in 1864 and in 1865 published his well known and widely read work, called a 'Narrative of an Expedition to the Zambesi, 1858 1864'

In 1865 Dr Livingstone again set out for the further prosecution of those explorations which had given him a world wide renown and connected his name inseparably with the history of African discovery Since this time the public mind has been generally in a state of uncertainty, often despair and sometimes of hope in regard to his whereabouts and safety Rumors innumerable have been published and then contradicted, until this last account of the New York Herald agent which although received with credence in America, as it seems considered doubtful by the family of the missing explorer The world will lose much if deprived of the homage it would gladly render this great man, and gain much if returning finally full of years and of honors from the haunts of savagery the boon is permitted to civilization of placing a chaplet of honor upon the furrowed and bronzed brow of Dr David Livingstone

And Now Comes Oregon

Under the above significant caption the San Francisco Chronicle says very pertinently that the recent State election in New Hampshire was made the occasion of raising a political issue against General Grant The success of a Democratic ticket was to have been hailed as an indication of the President's waning popularity After New Hampshire came Connecticut All the Democratic giants were called in to battle against the influence of the administration And now comes Oregon and, after a severe contest wheels into Republican line by a decisive majority, indicating that the Cincinnati Convention has made no impression as yet upon the Republican party there The Legislature is said to be Republican, which secures a Republican Senator in place of Corbett whose term expires next 4th of March General Williams formerly Senator from Oregon now Attorney General in Grant's Cabinet, will undoubtedly be elected, as it is probable that he will prefer to return to the Senate of the United States rather than to remain in the Cabinet So far as we are informed, there was no division in the Republican party in the recent election

We much mistake the sense of policy in the human mind, if the Legislature to convene at Salem next September does not see the expediency as well as the propriety of doing the people of this city justice by repealing the Metropolitan Police bill, which was forced upon us by the Democrats two years ago The vote in Portland at the late election shows the estimation which the people place on that piece of usurpation

The Figures

Giving due allowance for [illegible] made by the official count enough is known of the vote throughout the State to justify the belief that Wilson's majority for Congressman is fully one thousand The Salem [illegible] of the [illegible] claims only a majority of 11 for Burch in Baker county [illegible] letter from Canyon City yesterday [illegible] that Wilson and the Republican Representatives have carried Grant county We have felt confident that Grant was [illegible] the returns [illegible] the majorities are in that county we have no means of knowing [illegible] Grant

A Boy's Opinion of a Cat Of all hairy insects the cat is the animalist A good cat is hard to die It has two eyes a tail one head on its bow end and a leg on each outside corner of its body Its body has four corners, two of which are behind A [illegible] cat has no kittens to a mews They eat balls of yarn and play with mice but are not so sweet as a rose—that is fresh ones Some folks likes cats but huckleberry dumplings are better Father wears a stovepipe hat on Sunday and Aunt Polly had twins last summer A black cat don't chaw so much tobacco as a member of Congress, but spits more when he is mad Syrup of squills will make a cat hum but turpentine is better for the hair Mother cut her thumb on a flat iron and laid it to the cat then father walloped her I ran behind the hen-coop and squatted The new minister came over to our house yesterday, and sat down with his new trowsers in a chair full of young cats He spiled em bad If I had a red pig to play with I'd lend you my Sunday school book Cat has a lap in her mouth Mother's lap ain't Did you ever see a cat hold a box of pills on the end of her tail A swing machine runs but not so easy as a cat That is all I know of her

HARVESTER YOUNG AMERICA.

A LIGHT STRONG AND DURABLE MACHINE weighing [illegible] hundred [illegible] pounds, and is [illegible] two men can cut from [illegible] acres per day and [illegible] practical [illegible] so simple [illegible] liable to get out of order as there is [illegible] the combined machine—cutting, thrashing, cleaning and sacking the grain—[illegible] of the self raking harvesters now in use The work of harvesting is reduced to one-fifth the labor and saves more than can be [illegible] by any other machine The practical work of the machine is that cutting a six foot swathe it is carried to the Cylinder five feet in cutting [illegible] thrashing in heavy grain the motion of the [illegible] cleans up the machine [illegible] the last kernel in the sack before the motion is run down

When starting the machine will get motion enough to thrash and clean the grain before it reaches the cylinder on the feed belt The tender has full control of the cutting bar and raises or lowers it at his pleasure This and tying up the bags in from 12 to 20 rods and delivering them in the slide constitutes all his work and will not keep a man actively engaged more than one fourth the time The machine will cut down to six or up to thirty inches

The Patent was granted Jan 23 18[illegible] and the machine has been experimented with until we have got a thoroughly practical machine We ran one in Logan county Ill the last harvest

Practical farmers have figured the saving per day on this machine, over the other Harvesters at from fifty to sixty dollars, thus paying for the machine in twenty [illegible] saving, and the harvesting done with less work and trouble The machine was run in [illegible] on the farm of S K Fadan Lawrence county

HARVESTER YOUNG AMERICA,

I have the control of the above named machine for the State of Oregon Washington and Idaho Territories and British Columbia I have ten machines on the way for introduction at the present harvest which I will sell one each to reliable parties, in the following named counties who will introduce the same for $1,000 each Umpqua Linn Lane Marion Polk Yamhill Washington Clackamas and Umatilla. Owing to delays in consummating my arrangements the above machines will not be ready for delivery before the 10th or 15th of July I expect to have one on exhibition about the 5th of July I have a person coming from the manufactory who will set each machine in complete running order and guarantee it will perform all that is promised of [illegible] Also have the agency for the Randel Rake and have 100 Coquillard Wagons coming for harvest use Also, agent for the Excelsior Reaper and Mower

CITY.

SMALL POX —Inasmuch as various rumors have been circulated recently as to the prevalence of small pox in different localities of the city and considerable apprehension has been experienced by the public in relation thereto we publish a statement which we hope will allay all fears in that direction Several weeks ago a few cases of small pox were developed and reported promptly to the [illegible] and the Committee on Health and Police and immediate action was taken a suitable building provided remote from the city and beyond the possibility of contagion The patients were at once removed to their quarters competent medical attention secured and every attention requisite bestowed Subsequently other cases were reported and were also removed Mr Newby who died from the disease yesterday morning was the last case which had been discovered and reported to Chief Lappeus, or the Council He was taken away from the city as soon as the disease had sufficient advancement to reveal its true character We are assured on the best authority—Chief Lappeus and the Health Committee—that there is not a single case now in the city so far as they have been able to discover Any practicing physician who attends a patient with that disease and fails to inform the proper authorities at once, is liable himself to a heavy penalty We think there is no occasion for any alarm whatever Every possible precaution has and is being taken to prevent its spread All the cases so far [illegible], except that of Mr Newby, came up on the steamer from San Francisco

DIED —A man named J C Wilson died suddenly on board the steamer Ajax Sunday morning about 4 o'clock He aroused one of the [illegible] and requested a drink of water, which was given to him In about fifteen minutes after taking he complained of feeling sick, and in a few minutes laid down and died The body was taken off and laid on the wharf. The Coroner was soon after notified of the facts The remains were conveyed to the undertaker's and an inquest held The following is the verdict We, the jury, called to view the body of a dead man find his name to be J. C. Wilson, and that he came to his death from heart disease, no marks of violence being found on his body. Signed · O Risley (foreman) C Dolson [illegible], D. Lower, Thomas Austin, W J [illegible] The person of the deceased was found a letter written by Rev. Mr. Joyslin, Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association which stated that Wilson was considered a fit subject of charity, and that the Secretary had paid his fare to San Francisco, where he had some friends residing The sum of $13 75 was found in Wilson's pocket, which the Coroner has on deposit. As the sum was insufficient to defray the burial expenses, the deceased was interred yesterday at the expense of the county and the sum found on his person will be paid over to the county treasury. From appearances Wilson seemed to be about 55 years old Nothing is known of him further than that he came some time ago from the [illegible] of the Cowlitz On examination the body was found to be very much bloated with every indication of a dropsical disease

LADIES' FESTIVAL —We understand that the [illegible] members and friends of Rev Dr Lindsley's church, on Third street, are taking advantage of the visits of Rev Mr Weekes and Rev Mr. Hay to hold a special festival in the lecture room of the church to morrow (Wednesday) evening The former clergyman has been laboring as a missionary on San Juan Island for the last two years, and the latter gentleman is going to co-operate with the former on the Sound The special object of this festival is to give them a word of cheer wish them God speed in their work of faith and labor of love, bid them good bye, and send them away rejoicing in the fullness of Christian sympathy Both of these clergymen preached for Dr Lindsley on last Sabbath with great acceptance. They are men of whom the Mission Board will have no occasion to be ashamed, and of whom the people of the Island and the Sound will have many reasons for gratitude. Christian friends of other denominations will receive a hearty welcome

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorporation were filed in the County Clerk's office [illegible] E. J. Bryan, L. Kidd P Mar[illegible] and P T Collins The name of [illegible] is "The Father Matthew Total Abstinence Society of Portland," and [illegible] to be perpetual. The object and [illegible] of the Society is for the advancement [illegible] teachings of temperance principles, charitable [illegible], and the administration of privileges, powers and benefits, according to the rules, and usages of similar societies, and for the acquisition of real estate The estimated value of the property of the corporation is $400 The sources of income of the corporation are the dues and fees from the members There are six trustees who hold their term of office for one year, until their successors are elected and qualified The corporation is to be located in this city

FOUND DEAD.—From a gentleman from Vancouver we learn that an old gentleman named Doland, residing near that place was found lying dead out in his field on last Saturday afternoon He had started out to burn some brush not far from the house. No one accompanied him Some time afterwards his son in law, Mr Petrand having occasion to go out in the field found the old gentleman stone dead It is not known what produced his death He was aged about 70 years, and was one of the old residents of Washington Territory He was well known and respected by a large circle of friends For months past Mr Doland had been gradually declining in health

CITY ELECTION —The city election which will be held in this city on the 17th instant will be for the purpose of choosing three Councilmen—one from each ward The three retiring members of that body are Messrs G L Story, from the First Ward, Walter Moffett, of the Second, and R J [illegible] of the Third Mr Moffett's term of office expires by limitation Mr Story was elected to fill the unexpired term created by the death of [illegible] Bills, and Mr. Coombs, to fill the remainder of the term rendered vacant by the resignation of D. C Lewis.

FROM HEART DISEASE —A man named John [illegible], who was stopping at the Vancouver [illegible], in Vancouver, died very suddenly on [illegible] evening. The cause of his death is ascribed to disease of the heart He had been in a [illegible] condition of health for some months past. The deceased was a German by birth, about 30 years, and unmarried He was an entire stranger and had neither friends nor relatives.

[illegible] The Columbia river fell one inch at [illegible] during Sunday night As the weather still continues warm, this is to be regarded as a favorable indication It is not an improbable supposition that the snow in the mountains has been exhausted. If such is the case—and we heartily unite in wishing—the river has reached its maximum hight and will continue to fall as rapidly as it came up

[illegible]—The following freight was brought down on the train yesterday evening 835 lbs merchandise, 1 269 lbs eggs 672 lbs furs 65 lbs lard; 440 bars soap 97 sks hair 672 lbs bacon; 5,722 lbs wool 6 car loads flour 4 24" lbs dried apples

They know their duty too well to require prompting in the matter Admission one dollar. Prof J B Wyatt is the musical director

FIRE ALARM —An alarm of fire was sounded last evening about 7 30 o'clock. With creditable alacrity the fire companies were at the scene It was soon discovered that one of the wooden buildings standing on the river side of Front street, between Washington and Alder, was on fire The rear portion of the roof back of Put Smith's office, had caught on fire and was sending up dense volumes of smoke A few well directed streams from the hoses extinguished every vestige of the flames The slight wooden awning in front of the real estate office of G C Rider, was crushed in by the weight of the men on the top in their vigorous efforts to get the hose along the roof The glass was smashed in in several places but fortunately no one was injured by the fall

THEATER —A rather sparse house greeted the re opening of Oro Fino Theater by Manager Waldron The thrilling four act drama entitled Retribution," was produced in excellent style by the Company The evening's performance concluded with ' Betsey Baker ' Between the two pieces Mrs Robert Fulford and Miss Minnie Pixley favored the audience with songs The performance was really fine and deserved better patronage than was accorded The public complain of a dearth of amusements when the troupe are absent, and now that a brief summer season has been inaugurated, it is right and proper that it should be liberally patronized The same bill will be offered to night

DEATH FROM SMALLPOX —Mr James B Newby, a young practicing attorney of this city and recently of San Francisco, died near this city yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, of smallpox The disease had been contracted over two weeks ago On discovering the grave character of the disease, the authorities promptly had him removed to a suitable place, where there would be no danger of the scourge spreading Competent medical treatment was supplied, and every attention bestowed, but, despite all, the patient did not survive Mr Newby was about 30 years of age at the time of his death His parents and several brothers and sisters reside in Yamhill county

Causeless Depression

This expression is often used but it is not fitly [illegible] [illegible] melancholy are not spontaneous [illegible] They are [illegible] natural [illegible] conditions [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] causes If there is no apparent reason for deep dejectency [illegible] a symptom of physical disease [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Bitters [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] alone the importance of having this invaluable tonic alterative and corrective in every dwelling and within the reach of all who travel by land or water cannot be over estimated As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to [illegible] to find a settlement poor or remote unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative

Wendell Phillips on the Tammany Candidate

You know I am neither a Republican nor a Grant man Whom I shall vote for, or whether I shall vote at all I do not know But certainly against Greeley I am for Grant We have had one Andy Johnson I will not run the risk of getting another in the race Greeley I want a man with some fixed principles Greeley never had any Besides I consider Greeley [illegible] candidate [illegible] the plot [illegible] was hatched by Southern white rebels more than a year ago [illegible] has been [illegible] nursed by them I advise any one who means to vote for him to [illegible] what agreements have been made by Mr Greeley's friends with Jeff Davis and his staff [illegible] I am perfectly certain that there is a distinct mutual understanding [illegible] between them If Horace Greeley enters the White House Jeff Davis will be as true a part of the administration as Seward was in Lincoln's day No negro can vote for Greeley who values his life or property or cares for his race If by a frown of Providence he is elected I shall advise every Southern loyalist to [illegible] that Grant's armies of North Carolina Ku Klux has allowed [illegible] If he is elected, let the negroes [illegible] in squads of fifty whom [illegible] will [illegible] and show no property after sunset [illegible] no black will own [illegible] forty eight hours if any rebel knows the fact

As for Adams I do not fear him an aristocrat by birth and a Democrat from perverseness the love of money makes such a man possible He is a Democrat but afraid to confess his creed or wear its uniform If any party allow him to lead it, he will lead it to its grave, as all the Adamses have always done Old John Adams vanity bigotry, and hate of Hamilton put the Federal party into its tomb John Quincy Adams administration was the death blow to the Whig party then called Republicans The light which gilds the Adamses is that of sunset They insure defeat Chatham said Sir William Young's voice was the death knell of his country The breath of an Adams fame has the chill of the charnel house in it Let them nurse their money bags like timid misers and allow bolder and more unselfish men whose foreheads are lit by the rising sun, to help the world forward undisturbed by their greedy ambition or their querulous croakings

For a loyal administration to protect the negro [illegible] the rebel and give the working man a chance, Grant's little finger is worth a baker's dozen of Greeleys Yours

Dana's Doom.

(From the Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch.)

One of the most notorious and persistent newspaper libelers in the land has come to sudden but merited grief. We refer of course to "Cheesy" Dana, of the New York Sun, whose office it has been, and is, to slander every one who is not in accord with his venal purposes. In connection with the Evans case, Dana nastily assailed ex-State Treasurer Hemphill, and of course, unjustly held him up to public ridicule and contempt. For this offense he was arrested and held for trial, fixing his own time for the case was not a persecution but a prosecution to subserve the ends of public as well as private justice. Dana, yesterday, on being called for trial, forfeited his bail and fled, like a base yard cur from deserved punishment. The proceedings in the case are elsewhere detailed in full, and we direct attention to the report of the same with regret only, that his insolent lawyer was not committed to the cell that Dana ought to occupy.

When the culprit in this case was arrested, a month ago we stated our opinion of Dana in explicit terms. Since then he was indicted by our grand jury. By courtesy he has had a sufficiency of the law's delay, and yesterday, on his promise that no further postponement would be expected on his part, was set for his trial. During the week, General McCandless, his attorney, was busy to prevent his trial by a jury, and, not succeeding, on Friday, Dana himself took charge of the machine, endeavoring to persuade Messrs. Mann and Cassidy, who represent the prosecution, to let him off. Acting strictly in accordance with the views of their client, Dana was informed that the case must be tried, whereupon his New York Tombs lawyer associated with him, Wm. L. Hirst, Esq., who, fully cognizant of all the facts in the case, yesterday appeared for him.

But Dana was not there, and Bartlett, his Tombs lawyer, believing himself to be in the polluted purlieus of Gotham, sought to serve his client by abusing the grand jury, the prosecution and the sitting judge, much as Dana abuses everybody who is not in strict accord with him. Judge Allison, with the courtesy toward strangers that is proverbial in our courts, instead of sending Bartlett to prison for contempt, simply seated him, and thus insolence as well as impudence was simply rebuked. Meanwhile Dana's bail ($5,000) was forfeited, the culprit being a frightened fugitive from justice, and, more than that, a recreant to his bondsmen, who kept him from the corridors of our county prison.

Now, one thing is certain, Dana will henceforth never dare to set his foot on Pennsylvania soil. False to the friends who served and saved him, and bailed and kept him out of jail; a lying libeler, who has no defence save that which depends upon persistence in wrong; a coward who skulks from the results of the injuries he has unjustly inflicted on others; a whelp without a history and a hound without honor—we are glad to know that Philadelphia will hereafter be free from his pestilential presence, though we had hoped that Messrs. Mann and Cassidy would, as they should, have consigned him to the confines of Moyamensing prison. Had Dana been a just man he would have vindicated the gentleman he assailed. Being a blackguard, he is only fitted for a jail, and there we hope to find him.

How the Germans Like It.

The Westliche Post, edited by Mr. Schurz, is the only German journal of influence that supports the Cincinnati nominees. The Anzeiger des Westens replies to some of its remarks as follows:

The Germans in this country have certainly progressed considerably in the influence they exercise, but they have also adopted a plain spirit of reasoning on all questions of importance that disturb the public mind. No sycophancy will be endured in their councils, and it will be impossible to mislead them unless facts are distorted in such a degree that even [illegible] minds may have cause for doubt. They understood the meaning of the Cincinnati Convention, but also feel that they have been misled as to its import, and it will hardly be a successful venture for anybody to attempt to convince them that the result of the Convention is in accordance with the purpose for which it has been called. During the next six months we shall have to press down considerable [illegible] talk concerning this convention. [illegible] will be informed that fish may also be meat, that mixed water may in circumstances be drunk as wine. Horace Greeley is the only real representative of liberal views, we will be told day after day for the next six months, and B. Gratz Brown will be represented as the soul of all reformers, the statesman who alone will show himself able to master situations for which he has never shown any talent. Soon Greeley and Brown will be exhibited as statesmen and practical reformers; their ideas and thoughts will be arranged to suit all, and our German citizens be influenced to think of finding them the representatives of what they consider the new era of American morality and reform. If it were possible to mislead Germans, if it were within the scope of possibility to force Germans to believe that their ideas of national [illegible] harmonize with these of political quacks, we would have cause to fear that a political and social era had arrived in which men's minds were no longer their own.

The Missouri St[illegible] Zeitung first calls attention to the pr[illegible] objects of the Convention—free trade, extinction of the temperance law, honesty [illegible] option—and continues as follows:

To attain th[illegible], the well-known "crazy herrings" [illegible] Louis and other [illegible] met in [illegible]. Formerly no person po[illegible] amount of radicalism to suit [illegible] spelt radicalism with double [illegible] pronounced it R-r-r-r-[illegible] but now these gentlemen, dissatisfied at not having been born in the princely cradles of the Romanoffs and Hapsburgs, or perhaps because their brothers or cousins did not have an office, met at Cincinnati in solemn disgust at some pretended offense, and—1. Made a platform in which free trade was not even mentioned. 2. Nominated Horace Greeley, an honest temperance man, for President, and associated with him as Vice President, the "terrible model," B. Gratz Brown. They inaugurated the whole thing with swindling and fraud. The organ of this movement swallows the pill, it is true, but with such distortion of the features as to give it the appearance of having eaten sour grapes. The majority of Germans cannot be misled by the Cincinnati fraud. Just as Horace Greeley some time ago remarked, that he accepts the nomination to a certain position but repudiates the platform, so to-day the majority of our citizens repudiate not alone the platform but also the candidates.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—Flour—There has been a further decline in New York of 25@50c under heavy receipts and renewal of exports to Great Britain—some 3,000 barrels good round-hooped Milwaukee extra being taken at $7 40, delivered at ship. PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Beautiful Woman.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM gives to the Complexion the Freshness of Youth.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM overcomes the flushed appearance caused by heat, fatigue and excitement. It makes the lady of forty appear but twenty, and so natural and perfect that no person can detect its application. By its use the roughest skin is made to rival the pure radiant texture of youthful beauty. It removes redness, blotches and pimples. It contains nothing that will injure the skin in the least.

MAGNOLIA BALM is used by all fashionable ladies in New York, London and Paris. It costs only 75 cents per Bottle, and is sold by all Druggists and Perfumers.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ordinance No. 1172.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE PREvention of Fires.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. That every Flue or Chimney that may hereafter be [illegible] within the city, shall have walls of good [illegible] of brick or stone at least four inches in thickness, [illegible] at least six inches in thickness, of [illegible] material and to be laid in good [illegible] mortar [illegible].

No [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] shall be at least two feet [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] above the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

Section 2. No smoke pipe in any building with wooden or combustible floors and ceilings shall enter any flue unless such pipe shall be at least eighteen inches from the floors or ceilings; and in all cases where [illegible] pass through [illegible] they shall be [illegible] by a double collar of metal with at least four inches air space and holes for ventilation, or by a soapstone ring not less than [illegible] inches in thickness and extending through the partition or by a metal casting of [illegible] earthenware ring [illegible] from the pipe. No stove pipe nor smoke pipe shall pass through any wooden [illegible] of any building except by a permit granted by a Fire Warden, and such permit shall designate the time for which such leave is granted. The openings where the pipe goes through the roof or side of a building shall, in all cases, be at least four inches in diameter, larger than the size of the pipe and be protected by a double collar of metal or otherwise, as in case of passing through partitions and the [illegible] on the inside and outside of such [illegible].

No smoke pipe shall be placed nearer than sixteen inches to any wall except at right angles therewith in passing through the same, nor nearer than sixteen inches to the wall of any adjoining building. All smoke pipes passing through the roof of any building shall extend at least four feet above the roof of the building to which they are attached, measuring from the point where each passes through such roof, and if, in the opinion of a Fire Warden, they be deemed unsafe to the building or buildings adjoining, they shall be carried up to such a height as may be deemed necessary not to exceed [illegible] feet above the extreme height of said building or buildings adjoining; provided, that no owner, proprietor, superintendent, agent or occupant of, or other person using or managing or having the control of any steam saw or planing mill, or factory of any kind, or any foundry or machine shop, or any other establishment where steam power is used, shall use or continue the use of, maintain or erect any smoke stack or chimney in connection with any such establishment of less height than twenty feet above the adjoining buildings, or those adjacent thereto. If, in the opinion of a Fire Warden, a sheet iron pipe is not sufficient for the safety of the building or buildings he shall inform the owner or occupant thereof, and order a brick chimney, which order shall be complied with within ten days, provided, that hotels and restaurants shall in all cases provide brick chimneys to be used instead of stove pipes. All owners of or occupants of any building within the city, in which there is a smoke pipe shall, when notified by a Fire Warden, comply with the foregoing requirements of, and also replace a bad or defective smoke pipe with a new one when so ordered.

Section 3. That when any flue, smoke pipe or chimney constructed prior to this ordinance going into effect shall be deemed by a Fire Warden to be unsafe, the Fire Warden in whose district the same may occur, shall notify in writing the owner or occupant of the building that the same must be repaired or removed within ten days; and if the parties so notified shall persist in using any flue, smoke pipe or chimney which endangers the building to which it is attached or adjoining building, the Fire Warden shall cause the same to be repaired or removed, and the cost of such repairs shall be made at the expense of the owner or occupant of the building.

Section 4. No stove shall stand within two feet of any wooden or cloth wall, unless such wall is fully protected by tin or iron plates fastened thereon, and no person using stoves shall cause to have placed under said stoves any other combustible material sufficient to protect the floor from fire.

Section 5. It shall be unlawful for any person to deposit ashes in any wooden vessel or in any place within the city or carry them in any place in the city except in [illegible] premises that will be nearer than ten feet to any wooden work.

Section 6. No person shall use any portable light in any building or place where combustible materials are kept unless such light be securely enclosed in a lantern, and no person shall use a light where combustible materials are suspended above it without protecting it so as to prevent such materials from falling upon or coming in contact with it.

Section 7. Every person making or using shavings shall, at the close of each day, cause the same to be securely stored or disposed of so as to be safe from fire. All hay, straw, or other combustible material, shall be so stowed as to be safe from fire, and when not so stowed the Fire Warden may direct the removal of the same, or cause the same to be protected from fire, and at the expense of the owner or occupant of the premises. No owner or occupant of any livery stable in this city shall, by himself or those in his employ, use therein, or in any place containing hay, straw, or other combustible matter, any lighted candle or other portable light except the same be securely protected by a lantern. No person shall, in this city, have, put, or keep any hay or straw in stack or pile without having the same enclosed or secured so as to protect it from flying sparks of fire.

Section 8. That the Fire Wardens of this city shall at all times have the right to enter any building within the city for the purpose of discovering or ascertaining any violation of this Ordinance.

Section 9. That it shall be the duty of each Fireman to give the Wardens notice of every violation of this Ordinance which may come to his knowledge.

Section 10. That no person shall willfully and maliciously make a false alarm of fire.

Section 11. That whenever a Fire Warden deems it necessary for the safety of any building, or adjoining buildings, to have any accumulation of moss removed from the roof of such building he shall notify the owner or occupant of such building, who shall at once have the same removed.

Section 12. No person shall make or cause to be made a fire on any wooden pavement or planking within the city.

Section 13. No person shall in the city boil any pitch, tar, resin, turpentine varnish or other inflammable substance unless the same be done in an open place at least thirty feet from any building, boat, vessel or other property that might be injured thereby, or in a fire proof building.

Section 14. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before the Police Court, shall be punished by a fine not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, and each day of maintaining or continuing such violation shall be deemed a new offence and punished accordingly.

Section 15. The Chief Engineer and Assistant Engineers of the Fire Department are required to see that the provisions of this ordinance are enforced, and to make complaints in the Police Court for violations thereof.

Section 16. Ordinance No. 71, entitled An Ordinance for the Prevention of Fires, approved Feb. 27th, 1868, is hereby repealed.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with [illegible] facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, bloated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of life or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are [illegible] with any of these horrible, life-destroying [illegible] that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many [illegible] doctors who infest all cities, publishing their advertising all diseases in a few days. Imposing upon [illegible] by using the names of eminent physicians [illegible] and other places. Be therefore careful and, [illegible] or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of [illegible]. This solitary vice, or depraved secret indulgence, [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confusion of ideas, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, [illegible] pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, [illegible] monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and [illegible] mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] to him that he was cured of this complaint by the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are afflicted under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, medicines promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with full directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in a letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus awards—certificates, dupe the unwary [illegible] of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and [illegible] too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office [illegible] etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them, until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles or certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. [illegible] will satisfy persons who may call at his office [illegible] his ability to treat disease that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearny street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 1,957.
